What's unique about openNWorks?

Regional focus

Size of the partnership

We have publishers...

...but won't be joining the *Dark Side

Elsevier will...

- Provide a publisher perspective at workshops and events
- Support UK researchers in understanding funders and institution OA policies
- Work with UK HEIs to automate tools and services

We have Dr Frances Pinter...

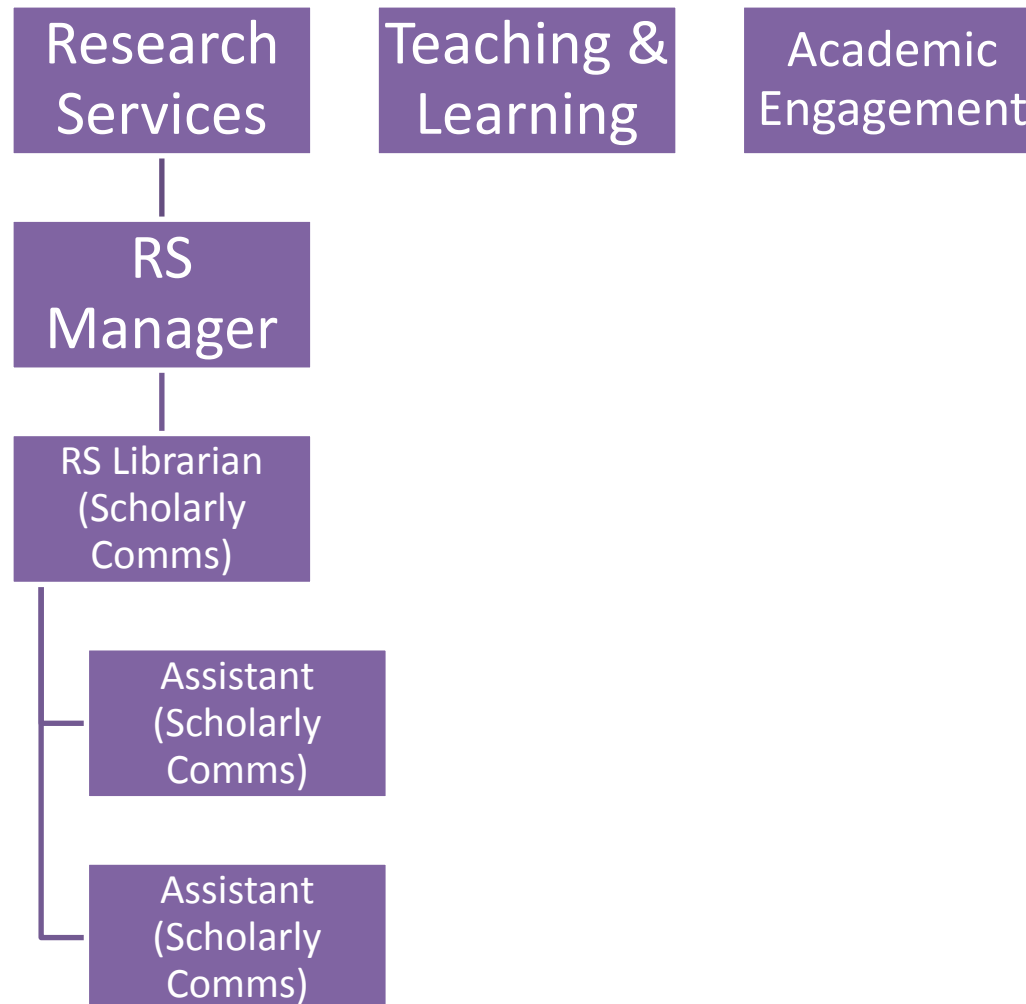

“Frances believes passionately in scholarly research and in digital content providing the opportunity for global communication, openly available so that anyone who has access to the internet can use it.”

Insights, the UKSG Journal, July 2012

Partnership diversity

Resources and structure (OK, not unique...)

Toolkits

Will need to ensure they are unique!

...and we have a great project name!

opeNWorks

(see what we did there...?)

...any questions?
